

CRANLEIGH DECORATIVE AND FINE ARTS SOCIETY

A Special Interest Day: November 11th 2017 10.00 -15.15

at Cranleigh Arts Centre

The Genius that is Michelangelo:

A Celebration of his life & works: sculptor, painter, architect & poet.

presented by Shirley Smith BA (Hons)FRSA

Shirley specialises in Italian Renaissance Art & Architecture. She lectures to a range of National Arts Societies and Universities. She has written on the frescoes contained in the Sistine Chapel.

The programme:

10.00-11.00 Session 1 Michelangelo's early life and work

Coffee & home-made biscuits

11.45 12.45 Session 2 continuing work in Florence & the Sistine Chapel

Lunch the special events committee are again providing their delicious buffet lunch with wine and soft drinks.

14.00 1.00 Session 3 The last Judgement, the rebuilding of St Peters & the Capitol and the Pauline Chapel. His final work & sculptures.

Each session will include examples of his poetry and the political environment and upheaval in which he was working during 16th Century Florence

All this at a cost of only £35:

The day aims to provide an opportunity to sit with other members of our society to share, discuss and enjoy. Places for this event are limited due to catering.